

Environment Policy

Yamagata (Thailand) Co., Ltd, located at 324 Moo 4 Bangpoo Industrial Estate Soi 6B, Sukhumvit Road, Phraeksa Sub-District, Muang Samutprakarn District, Samutprakarn Province, 10280 Thailand, is a service provider in the production of manuals for electrical home appliances and automobiles (offset and digital printing systems), sticker labels and packaging.

According to our vision, we are committed to producing quality products, providing services to customers with integrity, realizing the use of prohibited substances in accordance with the customer's requirements, maintaining natural resources and the environmental impact of each process by following the commitments listed below:

- We are committed to complying with environmental laws, chemical control according to regulations and requirements such as Rohs, REACH, SVHC, others that are harmful to the environment in the product, etc.

- We are committed to reducing, eliminating the use of chemicals, controlling hazardous substance with both direct and indirect ways and using the environmentally friendly substance as well as continuing to find alternative chemicals.

- We are committed to reducing waste and hazardous waste, controlling pollution occurred from operations such as dust, smoke, vapor, wastewater, etc. as well as implementing continuous environmental improvements.

- We are committed to reducing the risk of environmental impacts by improving environmental management system, product and customer's regulations, including European Union regulations, and provision of trainings to employees.

- We are committed to conserving resources and using energy with the most efficient and effective way.

- We will communicate this environmental policy to employees, subcontractors as well as to public.

Yamagata (Thailand) Co., Ltd is proud to provide support and maintain production in each process in accordance with the policy in such environmentally friendly ways together forever.